

ON THE MOVE

Andrew McLean has joined Present Value Properties, a retail real estate brokerage and consulting company in Tustin, as vice president. McLean previously worked as vice president with Lee & Associates, a real estate company in Newport Beach.

McLean

NBC "Dateline" and Canadian broadcasting correspondent Keith Morrison has joined Irvine-based Orange County United Way's board of directors. He was elected to a three-year term.

Morrison

David Pyott, the CEO of Irvine-based Allergan, has resigned from Edwards Lifesciences Corp.'s board of directors to devote more time to Allergan. Pyott had been on the board since 2000. Allergan is fighting a $53.7 billion hostile bid from Valeant Pharmaceuticals and billionaire William Ackman's Pershing Square.

COURTESY OF LONGUST DISTRIBUTING

Longust Distributing's new Anaheim building will be ready in 2015.

NEW VENTURES

Irvine real estate company Jones Lang LaSalle represented Anaheim-based Longust Distributing in a 10-year industrial lease at Anaheim Concourse, a three-phase industrial project under development by Panattoni Development Co. and Ciarion Partners. Longust, a wholesale flooring distributor, will occupy the space and use it as the company's Southern California distribution center.

MaxLinear, a radio frequency provider in Irvine, has agreed to acquire Physpeed, a technology solutions provider in Camarillo. The deal will help MaxLinear expand its efforts into infrastructure for data centers as well as metro and long-haul telecommunications operators.

COMING UP

Concordia University in Irvine will host a Breakfast and Business Insights workshop from 7 to 8:15 a.m. Oct. 30. The event will focus on how entrepreneurs turn their ideas into successful endeavors. Guest speaker Derek Lidow, a New Jersey-based entrepreneur and former chief executive for Global Enterprises, will discuss common reasons for startup failures, skills required for growth and how to create a leadership strategy. Breakfast starts at 7 a.m. Lidow will speak from 7:45 to 8:15 a.m. Admission is $25. Reservations are required by Oct. 28. Grimm Hall North, third floor, Conference Center, 1530 Concordia West, Irvine. cui.edu/academicprograms/business.