Established in February 2018, United to End Homelessness is a community-wide collaboration bringing together the county's top business, philanthropic, governmental, faith-based, and non-profit leaders committed to ending homelessness in Orange County by March 2024. This initiative, empowered by United Way, is working to ensure that integrated and sustainable solutions are implemented on behalf of Orange County neighbors suffering from homelessness.

A One Year Anniversary Celebration of United to End Homelessness will follow the Property Owner Summit. Let us know if you will be able to stay to celebrate with us!

RSVP by March 6 to
