THE ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

This alliance of nearly 400 elite local philanthropists sets the standard for charitable giving, volunteerism and advocacy in our community. When you sponsor the Alexis de Tocqueville Society, you gain access to a valuable association for powerful networking and building awareness.

Affinity groups include:

Bench & Bar – A network of leading Orange County attorneys who are taking a stand for our next generation to help build a brighter future for children and families in our community.

President's Circle – President's Circle members are dedicated to social responsibility and make an annual donation to United Way directly supporting our mission and local programs.

Real Estate Community Builders – A network of Orange County real estate and building industry leaders committed to building our community's future.

Women's Philanthropy Fund – One of the most powerful voices of philanthropy for women in Orange County, this networking of passionate women build resources and lead change to support children and families in Orange County.

WOMEN UNITED

Align your brand with this group that includes many of Orange County's most influential female leaders. Women United donor network events provide an unprecedented venue for strategically communicating your corporate commitment to volunteerism and creating brighter futures for women, children and families in our community.

EMERGING LEADERS UNITED

Support the next generation of young professionals and their strong interest in philanthropy and service by sponsoring this popular donor network. You'll enjoy events geared to local members of this fast-growing and dynamic workforce demographic, and they'll get to know your company and your representatives.
