ACHIEVING EQUITY IN ORANGE COUNTY

An Initiative of

Grant Administrator

Achieving Equity in Orange County

The Equity in OC* Initiative is a community-informed and data-driven initiative to address health inequities and disparities by laying the foundation for creating a healthier, more resilient, and equitable Orange County. In 2022 and 2023, the Equity in OC Initiative awarded grants to community organizations to participate in initiative-related activities focused on identifying solutions to achieving health equity. In addition, Equity in OC awarded grants to organizations and collectives that share our commitment to closing the health equity gap. Together, grant recipients are responding to the immediate needs of their communities, while building resiliency to better recover and respond to future public health crises.

Health Equity is when everyone has a fair opportunity to attain their full health potential and that no one should be disadvantaged from achieving this potential.

*Equity in OC is an Orange County Health Care Agency initiative working in collaboration with local Orange County community partners and funded by a grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Improving Social Determinants of Health (SDoH) and Reducing the Health Equity Gap

These grants support a collaborative approach to creating positive change in three primary SDoH action areas: Housing is Health, Food as Medicine, and Health & Healing. The recipients are implementing projects that reduce health equity gaps and address SDoH affecting their communities.

Key focus areas include:

- Improving SDoH by supporting a neighborhood, population, or community; advancing clinical care delivery for a priority population; or addressing a chronic health condition.
- Addressing the impact of systemic and/or structural racism on health.
- Increasing community capacity to maintain and improve health.
- Improving community-centered interventions and/or social conditions that influence health.

SDoH Grant Recipients: Housing is Health

Community Member Engagement

49 diverse community residents are actively engaged in Equity in OC, representing ethnically and socially diverse communities. These residents have lived experiences of poverty, are impacted by various social determinants of health, and are members of several sub-populations that face health disparities. These residents identify as members of the following groups: non-English speakers (19), individuals affected by poverty (18), individuals experiencing under-employment (12), older adults (12), individuals from mixed-immigration status households (10), mental health and recovery (9), individuals with disabilities (8), unhoused (6), religious minorities (6), youth (4), LGBTQ+ (4), gender minorities (3), and Veterans (3).

These resilient, engaged residents have participated in Equity in OC meetings, convenings and trainings supporting the work of Equity in OC funded grantee projects and teams. The engagement by residents more than doubled from what was reported in 2022; evidence that community power is being built in Orange County as a result of this work.
