

2026 EVENT SPONSORSHIPS

YOUR SUPPORT MAKES AN IMPACT

For over 100 years, Orange County United Way has been uplifting our community by creating brighter futures for all.

Together, with our supporters, we address Orange County's most challenging human needs through collaboration, advocacy, and strategic programming. We leverage our innovative and action-oriented approach to deliver measurable results.

Your partnership with Orange County United Way demonstrates a strong commitment to improving the lives of local families and strengthening the region where your employees and customers live and work. When you align yourself with our mission, you are helping to create real opportunities for our neighbors—opening doors, restoring stability, and preventing homelessness right here in our community.

We understand our community's needs and we are committed to solving them.

April 9, 2026

EVENT TIME

11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

EVENT LOCATION

The Cove at UCI

5270 California Ave, Irvine, CA 92617

Our Annual Scorecard Event brings together Orange County's most prominent business and civic leaders, advocates, and philanthropists to learn about our progress made in education, health, housing, and financial stability through our three key initiatives: United for Student SuccessSM, United for Financial SecuritySM, and United to End HomelessnessSM as well as our key service, 2-1-1 Orange County (211OC).

This event features an inspirational look into our UNITED4OC 2030 community-impact strategic plan via insightful speakers, and shares tangible ways to make a difference all while providing an exciting networking opportunity. As a sponsor, you can enjoy front-and-center visibility as a company that cares.

For more information or to reserve your sponsorship, please contact

Erika Lemus, Director of Special Events | ErikaL@UnitedWayOC.org | 949.263.6123

The event entertains, informs, and inspires attendees by reporting community progress in the areas of education, health, housing, and financial stability.
